Pioneering Excellence in Supervision for AAMET Trainers

Together we will be...

- Creating a reflective space to support best practice
- Exploring training techniques
- Discussing the importance of maintaining student engagement and support
- Discovering solutions for classroom challenges
- Sharing observation, assessment and encouragement skills
- Developing effective feedback techniques
- Coming into alignment with AAMET Regulations, Syllabus, Competencies, and Ethics
- Providing each other with assistance and nourishment
- Establishing a community of professional and transformative Educators

The focus of these sessions will be to establish clarity of intention, to grow in our roles as instructors and to develop both personally and professionally. Martine and Ranjana will also share some of their personal experiences as Educators.

I'd like to send praise Martine and Ranjana's way; their Mentoring classes are of high quality and provide an excellent, welcoming platform to meaningfully discuss cases, training issues and share best practices. Kudos to them both!" – Jondi Whitis, MTOT/AAMET International

Martine is an educator, mentor and wellbeing coach with formal training and a background in education. Her own challenges with stress led her to learn meditation, relax with Reiki and to open to the wonder and energy of Life in new healthy ways. Along the way, she found EFT. She is a AAMET Trainer of Trainers, a Reiki Master and Teacher and a Spiritual Educator with the Spiritual Companions Trust. Martine has always taken a very down-to-earth approach to her work, balancing the inspirational with the practical. We all lead busy lives so she believes in selecting the right tools and techniques to achieve positive results in a realistic timeframe. You can read more about her at www.martinemoorby.com
